Stewardship Corner

Today's second reading reminds us that we are the adopted sons and daughters – the heirs – of God. We are good stewards of our inheritance when we share our faith and fulfill Our Lord's command to "go...and make disciples of all the nations."

Parish Office Summer Hours

As we approach the end of the school year, it's a good time to remind everyone of changes to parish office hours. After Memorial Day, the office will be open Monday through Thursday from 8:00 am until 4:00 pm. On Fridays until Labor Day, the office will close at 12:00 noon so that our employees can make the most of their Summer. As always, secure boxes are conveniently located by the front and office doors for your offering envelopes before and after Mass as well as during parish office hours.

To better assist communication over the summer months when many office staff members will be enjoying some well-deserved time away for vacations, etc, we ask you reach out to them directly via email or phone to schedule a time to meet. While we always love to see you and chat, we would hate for you to spend time and gas only to find that the person you wish to see is on vacation. We hope that you can also make the most of your summer.

A Weekly Tip on Caring for Our Common Home

Even if we don't see immediate impact from our stewardship efforts, we must continue them and keep in mind that they will ultimately benefit society "for they call forth a goodness which, albeit unseen, inevitably tends to spread."

Bus Passes Always Needed

We have been OUT of bus passes for a few weeks now, and have been turning away many folks each day who come in asking for them. This is a big town, and it can take a very long time to get around Cedar Rapids on foot. Our clients need to get to doctor appointments, help with Social Security benefits, legal and social services, photo IDs, families on the other side of town, etc.

Please consider this donation to assist our neighbors without reliable transportation.

Everyday Metanoia

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. We continue our efforts to both understand and commune freely with our Triune God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. As part of my prayer with this Gospel passage, I put myself with the eleven disciples on that mountain and tried to decide if I would have fallen into the group of those that doubted. Imagine being called by Jesus to “follow me”; to live and learn and minister with Jesus for three years; to witness his teachings in word and deed; to stand in awe of the mysteries and healings that unfolded; to live through his horrific death on the cross and then behold his glorious resurrection; to watch Jesus ascend into heaven with the Father; to be huddled with the other disciples in the Upper Room when the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out; and finally, to be called to this mountain where Jesus stands before me. After all that had happened and all that I had seen, would I still doubt? Honesty would say that on some days, the answer would be yes.

At first, I dealt with some guilty feelings on this, but after further reflection and prayer, God led me on a different pathway. He reminded me that Jesus died and was resurrected to restore our relationship with Him, but not just restore, restoration with an “upgrade”, if you will. In the reading from Romans this week, Paul writes: “For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, ‘Abba, Father!’” So through that Spirit of adoption we have the gift of free will, because God wants us to choose Him, out of love and faith, not blind obedience and fear. God does not want us to be his slaves; we are his sons and daughters; invited to have an active role in making the Kingdom of Heaven visible and real here on earth. Having doubt at times, means that I am always having to discern what God would want me to do based on what I see, what I hear, what I know intellectually (past and present), and what I have in my heart. Being able to choose God, time after time, actually strengthens me.

Do not let your doubts keep you away from God any longer. Come to the Sunday liturgy and hear God’s Word and let it speak to our lives. Through prayer and study, actively seek the will of God. By the gift of free will, choose to live as our Triune God has spoken and lived. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide and strengthen. Choose God.

May 26, 2024 • Trinity Sunday • Matthew 28:16–20

He Is With Us

Jesus has lived his life, died and risen. He has taught his disciples everything he had to teach. Before he leaves them for a final time, Jesus tells them to make disciples of the whole world, teaching all they had learned and baptizing in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I once heard a religious educator say that a disciple was like an apprentice. A disciple doesn't have to have it all together—she makes mistakes. She is someone who is still learning. An apprentice also needs mentoring. She needs someone to teach her and instruct her, but she also needs someone to show her how to be whatever it is she is apprenticing to be.

We are disciples of a Trinitarian God, baptized in the name of the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit. Our way into the divine life of this Trinity is through Jesus. Jesus, the Son, is our brother, our savior and our mentor. He shows us how we can share in his divinity by teaching us to accept our humanity.

It was by living his life completely and embracing his death fully that Jesus became our way and our mentor. He accepted his limitations, and embraced his vulnerability. He showed us how to live through pain and loss and die with questions left unanswered. And through it all he shared his love with everyone: friends and enemies alike.

As disciples, we try, and sometimes fail, to live our lives as Jesus lived his, but like all good apprentices and disciples, we sometimes fail and have to try again. A great thing to remember is that Jesus is not just the ideal—someone we look up to and try to emulate—Jesus is our mentor. He walks with us, helping us clean up our messes. He constantly shares his love and his life with us so that we can share it with others.
