Stewardship Corner

St. James warns in today's second reading that those who hoard their wealth and live only for themselves will be condemned. But in the Gospel, Jesus assures us that all who give of themselves for His sake will be rewarded.

A Weekly Tip on Caring for Our Common Home

“Disinterested concern for others, and the rejection of every form of self-centeredness and self-absorption, are essential if we truly wish to care for our brothers and sisters and for the natural environment. These attitudes also attune us to the moral imperative of assessing the impact of our every action and personal decision on the world around us.” (Laudato Si', 208)

The Sacrament of Confirmation

Fr. Jack will be teaching the preparation classes for the Sacrament of Confirmation. We will celebrate this sacrament on March 30, 2025 at 2:30 PM. Archbishop Zinkula has asked all of the parishes to “partner” with another to ease his schedule. We will be partnering with St. Pius X and the sacrament will be celebrated there. Each parish will prepare the students individually. If you have a student who is in 10th grade or older and would like to be included, please email the following to Tracy Huk (businessmgr@allsaintscr.com): Full name of the student, name of the parent(s), email address that communication should be sent, location of baptism (if your student was not baptized at All Saints, please have a record of the baptism sent to the parish office as soon as possible), phone number to contact, address to use for contact. The dates for the classes are to be determined yet, so please email your information today so that we are able to keep you informed. If you have any questions, please call Tracy at 319-363-6130 ext 111.

Everyday Metanoia

The way that the Old Testament and the Gospel mirror each other today, along with the knowledge that this jealousy still exists in ministry and church life today, had me seriously asking God why He bothers with us humans. How embarrassing and defeating is it that we are still so hard-hearted and stiff-necked? Myself included. But then God's reply came to me. It is because He loves us that much. Just as in the Old Testament times when Abraham negotiated with God to save the city of Sodom (see Gen 18:16-32), we are called to work together to build the Kingdom of God on earth by recognizing and celebrating the gifts in the many that God has graced. Jealousy, pettiness and hostility tear apart the Kingdom. Mary Healy in her commentary on the Gospel of Mark states, "This is applicable to evangelization today, in which Christians often find themselves in a situation of disunity and competition that hinders the spread of the gospel. Since Vatican II the Church has encouraged Catholics to collaborate with Christians of different traditions, even in missionary work when possible, without ignoring the real doctrinal differences that exist. 'Other Churches and ecclesial Communities which draw people to faith in Christ the Savior and to baptism in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit draw them into the real though imperfect communion that exists between them and the Catholic Church. Catholics...should be careful to respect the lively faith of other Churches and ecclesial Communities which preach the Gospel, and rejoice in the grace of God that is at work among them.' (Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity)"

If we go through all of the Bible and name the sin that is at the root of most of the evil, the highest number of tallies would most likely go to the sinful emotion of jealousy. In the book of Genesis alone it is what led Cain to murder his brother Abel; it was the cause of Jacob demanding his brother Esau's birthright in exchange for a bowl of stew and to the deception of his father, Isaac, so that Jacob would receive the blessing and not Esau; and it was what induced Joseph's brothers to sell him into slavery. It's not just a part of the Old Testament. Jealousy is what created the rift between Jesus and the scribes and pharisees which grew into such hatred and envy that they had him crucified. It was jealousy of the work that Paul and the disciples were doing in the cities that led to the arrest and martyrdom of several. Spring forward over two thousand years and we know that the sin and destruction of jealousy still plays out in our world today.

Paul tried to address this when he talked about the Body of Christ - how we are all given different gifts that are meant to be used cooperatively to build the Kingdom on Earth. One look at the daily newsfeed is all we need to see that we still don't get it. What might change this? What needs to happen? With the understanding that we can't change the past and that the future can have an infinite number of paths based on our present knowledge, beliefs and actions, Richard Rohr offers the following to our present selves: "We know everything today and believe almost nothing. It is not reason that drives our lives, but passion or the search for it. It is not words and concepts, but living images that grab our souls. It is not what we know that haunts us at the end, but what we did not know and don't know yet. We must make friends with the unknowing. What you know is just ten thousand different things. But what you believe is what you pay attention to, what you care about, what finally lives and matters to you. What you believe is not one of ten thousand things, it is that which sees ten thousand things. It is not what you know that matters, or changes anything: It is what you believe - and believe all the way through." (Jesus' Alternative Plan: The Sermon on the Mount)

When Jesus was asked to identify the two greatest commandments in the Gospel of Matthew, He replied, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind...and you shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." Do we live our lives as if we know this or do we live our lives as if we believe this...all the way through? As Moses declared in today's Old Testament, "Would that all the people of the Lord were prophets! Would that the Lord might bestow his spirit on them all!"

Let's take this question to prayer this week: what do I know about God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit and what do I believe about God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit? The revelation from this could be the catalyst we need to not only change our own lives, but to change that of the world. Come to Mass this weekend (and the next and the next!) Invite someone you haven't seen in a while. Take the time to introduce yourself to someone that you don't know. Celebrate the gifts we see in one another. Repent and believe in the Gospel.

Celebrate Priesthood Sunday!

Do not wait until a priest retires or is transferred to celebrate their service. Like Father's Day, let Priesthood Sunday be the one day a year when we make it a point to make priests feel truly appreciated and special.

What is Priesthood Sunday?

Priesthood Sunday is celebrated on the last Sunday of September. Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. This nationwide event is coordinated and sponsored by the US Council of Serra International.

It is essential to note that the number of priests and ordinations in the United States has steadily declined in the past 50 years. Meanwhile, the number of parishes without a resident priest pastor has sharply increased in the same period of time. (See the official statistics from the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate (CARA) here.) The men who answer the call to priesthood are special indeed, and they are working harder than ever before.

We. Need. YOU!

Weekly Mass on Saturday and Sunday are a community effort. As they say, "It takes a village." As our Parish grows and evolves, our needs grow and evolve. Our little village requires the time and talent that only parishioners can provide. Do you have a passion for All Saints? You can transform that passion into something bigger. We invite you to learn more about the various volunteer opportunities available at All Saints parish. During fellowship following Mass on Saturday, September 28 and Sunday, September 29th, representatives from various ministries will be available to talk about what they do and why volunteering is impactful on their lives.

The resources are now available through Pflaum Publishing and we would like to invite you to participate.

National Catholic Youth Conference

Considering the National Catholic Youth Conference in 2025?

The National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) happens every year, but the Archdiocese typically takes part in odd years. NCYC 2025 is coming fast. The dates for NCYC '25 are November 20-23.

There are three ways for teens to experience NCYC.

- 1. Be a part of the Archdiocesan Delegation. Parish leaders (paid or volunteer) register their group with the Archdiocese. Package price of approximately $850 per person covers travel, lodging, registration, some meals, and on-site support. To join the Archdiocesan Delegation, we ask for group leaders to open a group account with the Archdiocese and submit a no-obligation group size estimate before December of 2024. Look for future announcements in the Official Bulletin and The InFo.
- 2. Organize a parish or collaborative/regional group. Work with other adults in your parish or other parishes near you to form your own group. Buy your own tickets. Book your own hotel rooms. Arrange your own transportation and meals. The Office of Youth Ministry will provide some tips and tricks to make it easier for you, but you will be independent of the Archdiocesan delegation.
- 3. Family option. Families can buy their own tickets and make travel plans without having to go through a parish. Sometimes, if your group is small, that is the easiest. A mom or dad with their own children can zip in and out a lot easier and likely save on costs.

Contact Kevin Feyen (k.feyen@dbqarch.org) for more information.

All Saints Foundation

God gives us many gifts during our lifetime. As steward of the gifts you receive, you are entrusted with ensuring these gifts are used to their fullest. We invite you to consider a planned gift or gift through your will to All Saints Parish, which will help perpetuate the mission of Jesus Christ. For more information on how this can be done, please contact Tracy Huk at 319-363-6130 ext 111 or businessmgr@allsaintscr.com to speak confidentially about your wishes. If you would like information about gift planning, please contact our planning partner at the Catholic Foundation at 563-552-0176 or CFAD@OurCFAD.org.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

We are excited to share that it is time for Children's Liturgy of the Word. This is a program that is available to ALL parish children (Pre K through Grade 2). This program takes place DURING the 9:00 am Mass on Sundays. We will begin on Sunday, October 6, 2024 and conclude Spring of 2025. Registration is appreciated so we know the number of resources to purchase. There is NO cost to families. We hope you find this to be a meaningful way for your child to spend the Liturgy of the Word while allowing you, the parent, an opportunity to fully engage in this part of the Mass. We encourage all children in 2nd grade to attend as an extension of their sacramental preparation this year. Please click on the registration link for more details and the opportunity to register. <https://forms.gle/atdZzPEuK8A5Z4RS8>

All Saints Financial Update

Financial Update as of 8/30/2024:

All Saints Parish is in need of your participation and help. Budget income for August declined by $23,560 from July to August of this year. We typically experience a small decline from July to August, but we are $26,758 below this same time as last year. A parish is not just the bricks and mortar, it is not the staff, and it is not all the programs available. A parish is the people who attend Mass and contribute their time, talents and treasure to the vitality and needs of the parish. The parish staff works with the Pastoral Council and the Finance Council to keep our expenses as low as possible. We are stewards of the funds you generously donate and we take that very seriously. If you are not currently contributing to the life of All Saints Parish, I encourage you to do so. If something has happened in the past and you would like to talk about it, please call or email me. Like the old Army poster said - we need you!

Unwrapping Your Spiritual Gifts

Unwrapping Your Spiritual Gifts as a metaphor that speaks to the process of discovering the gifts God gives each of us. There are special spiritual gifts that are given each of us to be used for the Church, the people of God, and in our personal lives. Those gifts come from the Holy Spirit. They are meant to help build the Kingdom of God.

“To each person the Manifestation of the Spirit is given for common good” 1 Corinthians 12:7

Uniquely Called and Gifted

“...each member has ‘his own special gift,’ as Saint Paul teaches. Although this ‘gift’ is a personal vocation and form of participation in the Church’s saving work, it also serves others, builds the Church and the fraternal communities in the various spheres of human life on earth.” -Pope John Paul II, Redeemptor Hominis (Redeemer of Man).

If you have an interest in learning about your Motivational Gift, please call Bob Lillibridge at the parish office 319-363-6130 ext.109 or email him at adultformation@allsaintscr.com.

We have a few important announcements regarding billing for the 24-25 school year. As XCS has proceeded forward, the district business office has been hard at work trying to coordinate all the schools into one system. Please read the information from the most recent All Saints E-News regarding updates about FACTS billing. It is our hope to have all billing set up and straightened out in the next week.

The Importance of Ecumenism

The apostles are upset. They tried to stop a man from driving out demons in Jesus' name because he was not one of Jesus' immediate followers. Jesus tells them not to prevent the man from working miracles. Jesus tells them that no one who was against him would have that kind of power.

The apostles sound a bit cliquish in this Gospel. They seem to be saying that only “card-carrying” Jesus followers are allowed to work miracles in Jesus’ name. Jesus tells them to look at the fruit of the venture, and to remember, “[W]hoever is not against us is for us.” Jesus’ statement serves well to remind us of the importance of ecumenism in the Catholic mindset.

The Catechism tells us that God is truth and love. Since we were created in the image and likeness of God, these two attributes are essential in our own lives if we wish to follow Jesus. Living one’s life in truth and love is the litmus test for the children of God. If someone is living life honestly, searching for truth and acting in loving ways, she is on the right path. She is walking with God.

I think in today’s world, Jesus would probably tell us to stop being so parochial, so legalistic and tell us to be more ecumenical. God’s plan has always been a universe filled with peace and harmony. All people are called to be one with each other and one with God. In God’s world there is no place for nit-picking over irrelevant details.

Jesus asks us to look for the good we see in another’s life (the fruits) no matter their religion. Ecumenism means looking for and concentrating on the things we have in common with folks. We need to name and celebrate the things that bring us together and work our way diligently through those issues that separate us.
