Stewardship Corner

How many of us can say this? St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God doesn't call us to be successful, he calls us to be faithful." How many times have we been blinded by the success of the world at the expense of our faith? Matthew Kelly says, "Take one minute each day to live Stewardship reminding yourself that you are just passing through this life and will die one day; you will live more intentionally with a passion and purpose."

A Weekly Tip on Caring for Our Common Home

Switch to a low-flow showerhead. Newer efficient showerheads use 2 gallons of water per minute or less, compared with 3 or more gallons a minute for older models. A family of four using low-flow showerheads can save about 20,000 gallons of water a year.

For the Married Couples

Peter is called to tend the Lord's flock, and Paul to preach among the Gentiles. Christian parents are called to tend to their children and are the first teachers of their faith. How are you and your spouse witnessing that you are truly committed to sharing your faith with your children?

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience

MARRIED COUPLES. Give your marriage a well-deserved vacation. Plan to go on a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience and come back with a marriage that is refreshed and full of energy! Our next weekend is September 12-14 in Dubuque. For more information call Greg and Denise at (563) 920-9419 or drubner9419@gmail.com.

Parish Office Hours

The parish office will be closed this Friday (July 4) to observe Independence Day. The team will be returning to the office on Monday, July 7 to resume normal Summer hours. In the meantime, if you need one of us, please don't hesitate to call or email the office to schedule a time to visit.

Please also remember that Friday Mass will be held in the sanctuary at 8:00 a.m.

Thank You!

Thank you for attending our gathering to celebrate the 13 years of pastoral service and retirement of our beloved Father Jack. He has shepherded us through many blessings and challenges at All Saints, most especially the derecho storm and the COVID virus. We appreciate your presence, cards, gifts and words of gratitude. Although many hands contributed to this celebration, we want to recognize: Ellen Mouw and Kathy Harriott, who chaired the planning and execution; Mike Hattery for sharing a few words and the parish gift of golf clubs, bag and cart; Marlene Wilson, for sharing the school kitchen along with her expertise; and the members of the Parish Life Committee, who baked all the cinnamon rolls. Thank you to everyone who helped to set-up, serve and clean-up - this was truly a parish celebration! May God bless Father Jack and may God bless the good people of All Saints.

The Pastoral Council and the Finance Council

Updated News - Fr. Eric

Our new Sacramental Priest, Fr. Eric Saah, will arrive in the United States late in the evening on Tuesday, July 1. Representatives from the Pastoral Center will pick him up and begin the process for him to receive a Social Security card. After that he will receive a driving refresher with the goal being to obtain an Iowa driver's license before the end of July. Given that government offices will be closed on the 4th of July, we will be providing the Archdiocese with a few extra days to finish their work on his behalf. What does that mean for All Saints?

- We will cancel daily Masses on July 9, 10, and 11. Fr. Jack will preside at the 8:00 AM Mass on Tuesday, July 8.
- We will post daily Mass schedules for nearby parishes on the entry doors for that week.
- We will have Adoration on Thursday, July 10 beginning at 8:00 AM.
- We will have the Respect Life Rosary on Friday, July 11 beginning at 8:00 AM.
- Fr. Eric will be here and will preside at the weekend Masses on Saturday, July 12 and Sunday, July 13. We will have cookies and lemonade after both Masses so that the parish can greet Fr. Eric and welcome him to All Saints.
- The week of July 14 may have some changes, too. It will depend on how much is able to be accomplished by July 11.

Please welcome Fr. Eric - it is a gift that he is willing to come to All Saints and be our Sacramental Priest! If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at 319-363-6130 ext 111 or email me at plc@allsaintscr.com.

Dan Was Here! (The Gift of Time)

As Tracy prepares for her new role here at All Saints those of us in the parish office are swiping various tasks from her desk to make this transition a little less stressful for her. This week, I'm taking away her article so that I can speak about something close to my heart (especially at this time of year), the gift of time.

According to the website, independentsector.org, the current estimated national value of each volunteer hour is $34.79. I was shocked too! But who can put a dollar amount on an hour of time given by one of our gracious parishioners who also volunteers their time and talent to a funeral luncheon? No, they don't get paid, nor do they accept tips. Rather, they go to bed knowing that they made a difference in a family's life by making sure they're not labored with the setup and teardown of the social hall while mourning the loss of a loved one. I'm certain that our funeral luncheon volunteers have many very personal reasons that drive them to lend a hand. The smiles I receive during my annual fall costume donation drive are worth way more than $35 per hour.

You're probably wondering why I'm speaking on the topic of the value of volunteer hours. Today during one of my walks through our beautiful parish, I witnessed someone dropping off a couple of tubs of food for MCO. After they left, I was curious to see what they donated since I know that MCO is currently out of pasta sauce. Our parishioners are usually very good at taking note of MCO's urgent needs and filling them generously. Shout out to you guys! I saw what looked like the random contents of many of our own kitchen cupboards. My gut told me to look at some of the expiration dates. As you can see from the photo, there were items dated back to 2009. Sigh. Rather than leave these items to the volunteers at MCO, I took it upon myself to relieve them of the arduous task of weeding out the old items as well as opened items that they cannot accept for obvious reasons. Knowing what I know now about the true value of a volunteer hour, I felt good about taking the five minutes I spent checking dates. I did the same for this weekend's very LARGE pile of Hy-Vee receipts. (Thank you again, by the way, for that generosity.) Old receipts must be discarded and finding them can be a daunting task, especially for one person. Knowing that we have only one volunteer for this task, I find it very disheartening to find old receipts that cannot be applied to the current year's total.

My plea to you all is that we recognize the value of volunteers and the time they give to sorting food at MCO, counting Hy-Vee receipts, easing the minds of grieving families during their time of loss, and the multitude of other things our wonderfully generous parishioners do in the service of others. What they feel upon completion of a project or event is so very fulfilling. It's what keeps them motivated. Knowing the actual dollar value of each hour a volunteer gives makes me much more mindful of how valuable that time is to an organization or project. It keeps ME motivated to make their efforts as easy as possible, so their time isn't wasted. I encourage you to do your part to maximize the efforts of volunteers of whatever project you're trying to help with your donation. If you have a stack of Hy-Vee receipts, please check those dates. If you have a box or bag of packaged food, please check those expiration dates. If you have a few hours a week that seem empty, use them to fuel your soul by volunteering for one of the many things that All Saints parishioners have their hands in. If you don't know what those are, keep an eye on this bulletin, check out our website and Facebook page, or ask me. I'm always glad to connect someone to a project that will be fulfilling to both the volunteer and the organization.

With warmest regards during this very hot June,

Dan Alpers, Office Manager, officemgr@allsaintscr.com

All Saints Golf Outing Gift Baskets

It's that time again - time for us to prepare some baskets for the silent auction for the August 11th All Saints golf outing.

In the past we have successfully raised anywhere from $1,000 to $2,000, due to the generosity of those who donated to build each beautiful basket.

Our Parish Life committee has already committed to preparing one! We are asking everyone to have their baskets ready, along with a document containing a brief description of the basket contents and the approximate value. We would like to have these baskets turned into the parish office before July 19th. We plan to display these baskets after masses for several weekends prior to the golf outing (Monday, August 11th) - weekends of July 19/20, July 26/27, August 2/3.

Of course, we welcome you and your family and friends to sign up to golf as well! There will be golf sign-up sheets available after masses real soon. For any questions related to golfing, please reach out to Mike Klappholz Jr.

Feel free to share this email with others who might be interested in providing baskets or donations or both.

Thank you for your support of this effort! Many hands make light work.

MCO to Participate in Healthy Kids Iowa

Iowa families who qualify for the Healthy Kids Iowa Pilot Program get expanded access to additional food throughout June, July, and August, such as fruits, vegetables, dairy items, grains, and proteins.

MCO is excited to host three distributions, June 26, July 24, and August 28, right here in our building. Households with children ages 4 to 18 with income at 185% or below of the Federal Poverty Level, or who are eligible for The Emergency Food Assistance Program, can participate. For more details go to <https://hhs.iowa.gov/healthy-kids-iowa>

This will operate much differently than our regular weekly distributions, as it will be a walk-in shopping pantry. Groceries will be selected by each family, according to their needs. Our volunteers will greet the families, assist with completion of paperwork, bag the groceries, and help load the food into vehicles. MCO is enthusiastic to be involved in this brand new summer food program.

Pausing Clothing Donations

Please note that the decision has been made to cut back on our clothing rack for our homeless clients this summer. We will still take donations of NEW socks and underwear, backpacks, rolling suitcases, and hygiene supplies. Please donate gently used clothing to St. Vincent de Paul or Green Square Meals, or any other charity of your choice.

All Saints Foundation

Did you know that All Saints has 4 endowed funds with the Catholic Foundation in the Archdiocese of Dubuque? When you include All Saints Parish in your estate planning, you become a part of a very special group who wants to ensure that All Saints will be here assisting future generations to Love God-Serve Others-Form Disciples. Your gift becomes the hands and feet of Christ on earth while you are praying for All Saints in heaven.

If you would like more information about leaving a legacy gift to All Saints contact Tracy Huk at 319-363-6130 ext 111 or businessmgr@allsaintscr.com. Update from Xavier Catholic Schools

XCS Families,

I hope in these early days of summer break you are already finding time for rest and relaxation!

We wanted to bring you up to speed on a few updates relating to how we are approaching our middle school administrative model as we prepare for the 2025-2026 school year. Our goal is to place our middle school administrators in the best position possible to effectively support their buildings, students and families. With that in mind, here are some of the adjustments we are planning to make next year:

2025-2026 Middle School Leadership:

- Regis Middle School - We are excited to share that Amanda Allard who will obtain her administrator license this summer, will serve solely as principal of Regis Middle School in 2025-2026.
- LaSalle Catholic Middle School - We are also thrilled to share that Zach Zeckser will serve solely as principal of LaSalle Catholic Middle School in 2025-2026.

As we began preparation for the upcoming consolidation of Regis and LaSalle, the adoption of a shared leadership model emerged as an effective and strategic choice for both schools, fostering collaborative leadership. As we continued to review this model, it became clear that the shared leadership model required too many “asks” of our administrators. We believe that having one principal dedicated to each building will help alleviate this challenge.

While our administrators will be able to focus on their respective buildings, we will continue to be very intentional about ensuring necessary collaboration is happening to successfully transition to our future consolidated middle school. All other leadership roles at both schools will remain as previously planned for the upcoming school year. A decision on the principalship model for the 2026-2027 school year (when we move to a consolidated middle school building) will be made next spring.

We are definitely excited about the difference we feel this decision will make -- and the positive effect it will have on the overall middle school experience for our students, teachers and staff.

May God continue to bless you this summer!

Our volunteers in the office answer the door and phones, schedule clients for their food pick-ups, assemble and distribute the homeless bags, organize clothing donations and other supplies.

We are in need of more volunteers, in the pantry, the distribution dock, and in the office. We promise you will never be bored!

Just “Say” It

Jesus questions the faith of his disciples by asking them, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” The responded that some say he is John the Baptist, others believe him to be the prophet Elijah or Jeremiah. Peter answers, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” Jesus blesses him by giving him the keys to the kingdom, making him the head of the church.

Peter, the apostle who sank while trying to walk on water because of his lack of faith, receives Jesus’ highest affirmation. “You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it” (v. 18). Peter goes on to deny Jesus, repent, and eventually become the leader Jesus knew he could be.

Peter is so wonderfully human in all the stories we hear about him. He is impulsive, he blunders, and he makes mistakes. Sometimes he seems almost childlike when he is around Jesus. Perhaps it is that childlike quality in Peter that allows him to see who Jesus really is, the Christ, son of the living God.

Children can be so incredibly honest. They can see right through facades and superficial appearances to the core of a person or situation. They blurt out what they think, sometimes to our own embarrassment. They are as quick to forgive as they are to condemn.

Then, one day when they are eight or nine or ten, they begin to learn how to hide their thoughts and feelings. They begin to practice saying what they know or think we want them to say. They are maturing and this is good, but how can we help them keep the best of their childhood qualities and still be able to go out in polite society?

I think the process must have something to do with being consistent in our patience and love. It involves giving enthusiastic affirmations and gentle, private corrections. That is certainly how Jesus treated Peter, and look how well he turned out—first pope, leader of the church, and the holder of the keys.

FAMILY RESPONSE

Ask each person to name three things about themselves that they really like. Make sure you remind children to listen well. Do not allow any teasing or laughing.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

What childlike qualities do you need to claim or reclaim to make your life easier or more comfortable? What do you want to remember from last week? What are you looking forward to next week? What are your concerns?

From Archbishop Zinkula

June 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I invite you today to embark on a new path with me—a Journey in Faith. This is a call from the Holy Spirit to examine how we live our Catholic faith and how we can best support our parishes, our priests, and one another for generations to come.

This work is a culmination of over a year of seeking feedback, discussion, and prayer. In addition to my own conversations throughout the diocese, I worked with an Envisioning Team, a group of 16 clergy, deacons and lay people from across the Archdiocese. Together, we reflected on where we have been as an archdiocese, where we are today, and where we want to go. I am grateful for their hard work.

Our vision is to be an engaged archdiocesan community of joyful missionary disciples, centered in our Eucharistic relationship with Jesus Christ and united through our legacy of faith. This vision will come to life through our three key priorities: evangelization, leadership formation, and pastoral planning. We must create the conditions for missionary discipleship to flourish, priests to be supported in their vocation, and every parish, school, and ministry to be part of a sustainable and spirit-filled network of evangelizing communities.

In order to achieve this vision and mission, we must address the challenges facing our archdiocese today, which include regional and archdiocesan population shifts, a decline in the importance and practice of religion in our society, and too few priests to staff 160 parishes. The net result of these challenges is that we are limited in the time, energy, and resources we are able to allocate to current ministry needs associated with sustaining and growing our Church.

Journey in Faith will examine the current organizational structure of parishes and schools to evaluate how they can best meet the needs of the faithful and address the challenges facing the Church today. It will be a discernment of how we will move from simply maintaining the parishes we have, towards a more mission-focused network of parishes.

You will be invited to participate in sessions at your parish to offer feedback, share ideas, and express hopes or concerns. These are real opportunities for dialogue and discernment. I ask that you approach them with an open heart and trust in God's providence. I want to hear from you.

What can you do now?

- Pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance
- Stay informed through parish communications
- Support your parish through service and stewardship
- Join a small group or faith formation opportunity
- Encourage and support your parish leaders
- Pray for our Archdiocese and clergy

This journey will not be easy, but I believe it will be fruitful. I truly believe the Holy Spirit is calling us forward — to TRUST each other, to TRANSFORM our Church, and to do it TOGETHER. If we walk this path with courage, with faith, and with love — listening to one another and to God — we can renew our Church and build something lasting for generations to come.

With you on this Journey in Faith,

Archbishop Thomas Zinkula
